1. Purpose
   a. This document details the policy and procedures for appointment and management of education agents (referred also to as Consultant - Advisor) for S P Jain School of Global Management (S P Jain / the School) towards ensuring that education agents recruited are competent, ethical and uphold the reputation of the School and the education systems in which it operates and protects the interests of prospective students.

   b. This policy requires that all agents recruited by S P Jain understand and acknowledge their responsibilities and obligations under the ESOS framework including the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 and the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018.

   c. These policies and procedures will apply to all education agents appointed by the School and should be made available to and adhered by the S P Jain staff involved in appointment and management of education agents.

2. Education Agent Application and Selection
   a. The President has delegated the responsibility of oversight of education agents to the Vice President - Administration, Registrar, Director - Admissions, Regional Heads - Student Recruitment and the Regional Admissions Offices.
b. All education agents interested in representing S P Jain will submit a completed S P Jain Education Agent Application Form (Appendix 1) to the regional marketing heads who will review and assess the application, whether the education agent is considered suitable, conduct reference checks and site visits if deemed necessary.

c. A staff of S P Jain nominated by the Regional Heads - Student Recruitment will complete the S P Jain Education Agent Site Visit Report (Attachment 1b) recording his /her final recommendation based on the site visit.

d. The regional heads will also conduct interviews with the owners/directors and/or main managers of the educational agent firm and based on his/her assessment prepare a final review and approval report.

3. Appointment of Education Agent

a. For all successful applications, S P Jain will enter into written agreements with the education agents detailing the courses and area jurisdictions in which the education agent can represent the School.

b. All the written agreements will be as per the standard draft agreement and will be signed between S P Jain School of Global Management Pty Ltd and the education agent.

c. The written agreements will outline:
   i. the responsibilities of S P Jain, including that the registered provider is responsible at all times for complying with the ESOS Framework;
   ii. S P Jain’s processes for monitoring and review of the activities of the education agent in representing the provider, and ensuring the education agent is giving students approved, accurate and up-to-date information;
   iii. the corrective action that may be taken by S P Jain if the education agent does not comply with its obligations under the written agreement;
   iv. S P Jain’s grounds for termination of the registered provider’s written agreement with the education agent, including providing for termination in the circumstances outlined in Standard 4.5 of the National Code 2018; and
   v. the circumstances under which information about the education agent may be disclosed by S P Jain to the Commonwealth or state or territory agencies.

d. The education agents will also provide a standard declaration in writing that they will:
   i. take reasonable steps to avoid conflicts of interests with its duties as an education agent for S P Jain;
ii. observe appropriate levels of confidentiality and transparency in their dealings with overseas students or intending overseas students;

iii. act honestly and in good faith, and in the best interests of the student; and

iv. have appropriate knowledge and understanding of the international education system in Australia, including the Australian International Education and Training Agent Code of Ethics.

e. Any deviations from the standard agreement will need to be justified and recommended by the Regional Heads - Student Recruitment to the Registrar who if deems that the deviation is justified and meets regularity requirements may further recommend to the Vice President – Administration and President for deviation approval.

4. Education Agent Certificate

a. On appointment, education agents will be issued a standard certificate as an authorised education agent of S P Jain for student recruitment.

b. The S P Jain education agent certificate will detail the education agent’s legal name and the regions in which he/she can operate, applicable courses, period of representation.

5. Education Agent Training and Information

a. S P Jain’s Regional Heads - Student Recruitment will ensure that:

   i. education agents have access to accurate and updated marketing material and information for student recruitment for all the applicable courses; and

   ii. are knowledgeable about the ESOS Framework and National Code 2018.

b. The education agents will also be provided with regular updates, briefings and training on the admission requirements, course structure and student services by S P Jain.

c. All education agents will need to provide the names of their staff members who will be involved in the counselling of prospective students of S P Jain and ensure that adequate training is provided to them.

6. Monitoring of Education Agents

a. S P Jain’s assigned staff will regularly monitor the agent's performance through regular communication and meetings with the agents.
b. The performance of education agents will also be monitored by Regional Heads – Student Recruitment on an ongoing basis on various factors including:
   i. Quality and completeness of student applications submitted;
   ii. Formal and informal feedback from students and their parents on their services;
   iii. Initiatives and activities undertaken by the education agent in the promotion of S P Jain courses; and
   iv. Adherence to ethical code of conduct and accurate distribution of marketing material and information.

7. Education Agent Review
   a. S P Jain will conduct an annual review of the performance, operations, procedures and practices followed by the education agents.

   b. In addition to annual review, S P Jain will conduct regular reviews of the education agents' performance, such reviews being based on information gathered through the monitoring procedures.

   c. S P Jain may also do an additional ad hoc review of the education agents' performance in the event of S P Jain becoming aware of any known or suspected case of unprofessional and unethical behaviour on the part of the education agent, or in the event of receiving a Student complaint.

8. Dishonest or Unethical Conduct a. Dishonest or unethical behaviour may include, but is not limited to:
      i. a deliberate attempt to recruit a student who has been studying with another provider for less than six months;
      ii. facilitating the recruitment of a student who will not be able to comply with the conditions of his/her visa;
      iii. creating a Confirmation of Enrolment, or causing one to be created by S P Jain, for anyone other than a bone fide student;
      iv. deliberately providing information to a potential student, or to S P Jain, which is incorrect or fraudulent;
      v. acting in a manner which is negligent, careless or incompetent;
      vi. providing unauthorised immigration advice.

   b. If S P Jain discovers an agent to have engaged in dishonest or unethical conduct, it will take immediate preventative and/or corrective action appropriate to the nature of the conduct. This will include:
      i. terminating the agreement with the education agent;
ii. not accepting students recruited by the education agent; and/or
iii. alerting relevant Australian authorities of the situation.

9. Education Agent agreement renewal
a. Education agent agreement will be renewed based on successful annual reviews and also post ensuring that there are no dishonest or unethical conduct and/or misinformation to the students or to S P Jain.

10. Termination of Education Agent Agreement
a. The education agent agreement will automatically cease on the date of expiry unless renewed through re-appointment.

b. The education agent agreement may also be prematurely terminated before expiry in cases of any breach of agreement by the education agent as detailed in the written agreement and/or dishonest or unethical conduct.

c. Upon termination, the education agent will return all the marketing and promotional material provided by S P Jain and also handover any pending student applications to S P Jain in order to ensure that students are not disadvantaged.

11. Education Agent Information Database
a. The Regional Heads – Student Recruitment maintain and update a database of education agents at all times and the same will be displayed on the S P Jain website.

b. The School ensures that all agent details are included in the PRISMs database managed by the Department of Home Affairs and TEQSA and is kept up to date as agents are appointed or not renewed.
